Stated objectives associated with the qualification and professional status (if applicable)

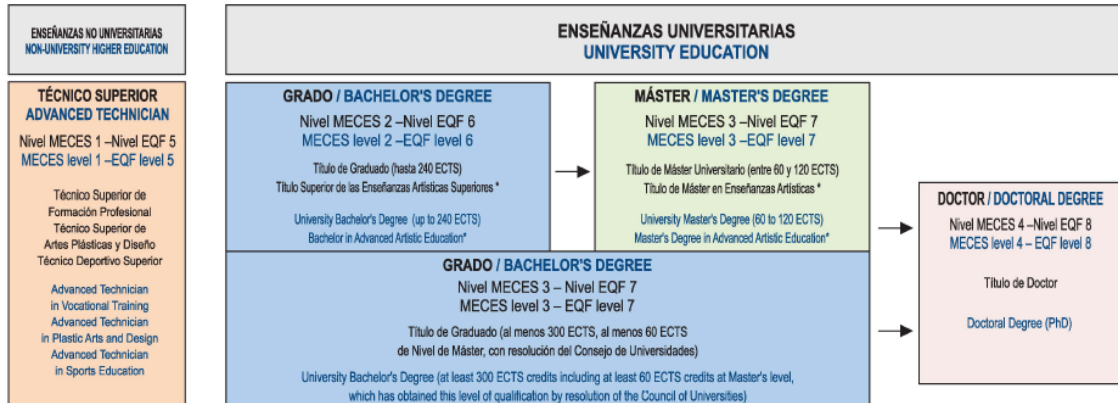

The objective of the master is twofold. On the one hand these students acquire a high level of expertise in relevant areas of intervention of government in society and, moreover, that by an advanced methodology learn to manage with excellence legislative, jurisprudential and doctrinal materials, isolation and relative positions, which are decisive for the training of lawyers premier.

The Master in Administration Intervention in Society fills a significant gap in the law students. Indeed, the extraordinary dimensions of Administrative Law at the undergraduate prevent and now in grade students to study which, informally, is called special part of administrative law. Well, the master fills this gap and also provides students with the tools necessary for the exercise of the right to the highest level.
