Grading scheme

In the Spanish university system, modules/courses are graded on a scale of 0 to 10 points with the following qualitative equivalence:

0-4.9: "suspense"; 5-6.9: "aprobado"; 7-8.9: "notable"; 9-10: "sobresaliente". A special mention, "Matrícula de Honor" may be granted to up to 5% of the students in a group provided they have got a "sobresaliente". To pass a module/course it is necessary to get at least 5 points.

In cases of recognition of ECTS, professional experience, cultural or sports activities, or student representation no grading will be recorded but, where appropriate, the word "Apto".

INFORMATION ON THE FUNCTION OF THE QUALIFICATION

Access to further study

This qualification gives access to Doctoral studies, provided that the student has completed a minimum of 300 ECTS in the overall teachings of Bachelor and Master.

Stated objectives associated with the qualification and professional status (if applicable)

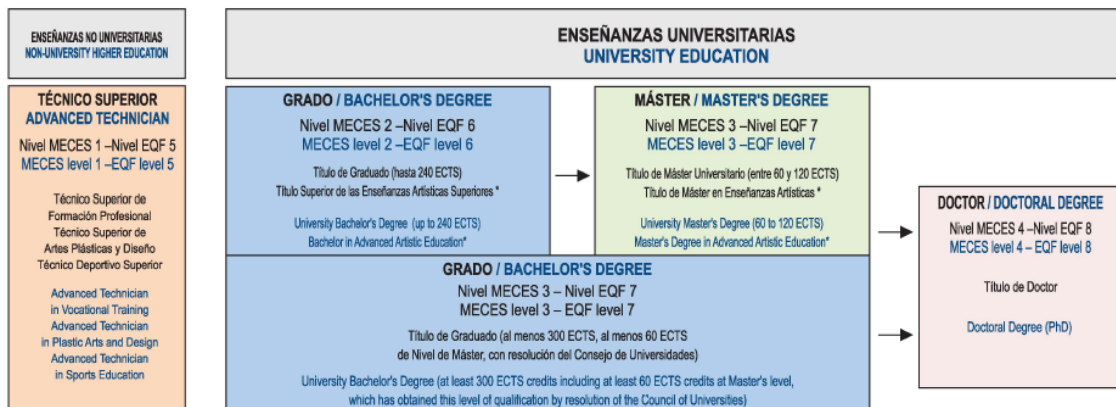

Students will systematically become familiar with anthropological concepts and theoretical orientations and will be capable of using them in a methodologically rigorous way in specific ethnographic contexts, analyzing social processes critically. The Master will train students for the critical study of processes of sociocultural discrimination and the construction of gender, class, and ethnic group inequality, among others, that occurs in contemporary societies, thus contributing to foster equity in intercultural relations.

The Master Degree in Anthropological Research and Its Applications will prepare students, theoretically and methodologically, to carry out anthropological research on characteristic problems and cultural processes of contemporary societies, as well as to apply anthropological knowledge to relevant issues, contexts and institutions.
